ORGANIZATION OF THIS DOCUMENT

The authorized resource lists for Knowledge and Employability courses are organized by subject/occupational strand. The lists are organized as follows:

Authorized Resources Listed by Subject (Grades 8–12)

Student Basic Resources are listed alphabetically within each grade, followed by Student Support Resources and Teaching Resources. Each entry provides the following information:

- series name (if applicable)
- title of resource
- authorization category (student basic, student support, teaching)
- grades authorized for
- vendor/distributor name, order number and price
- other Knowledge and Employability subjects authorized for (if any).

Annotated Bibliography Listed Alphabetically by Title

Each of the resources listed has a corresponding annotation. Each annotation page identifies the:

- series name (if applicable)
- title of resource
- type of resource—the annotation has an icon of the type of the resource (e.g., print, video, CD-ROM)
- authorization category (student basic, student support, teaching)
- grades authorized for
- subjects authorized for
- vendor/distributor name, order number and price.

RESOURCE AUTHORIZATION CATEGORIES

Knowledge and Employability Resources

The resource lists for Knowledge and Employability courses contain learning and teaching resources that have been authorized for use in Alberta schools.

Alberta Education selects and authorizes resources to support the implementation of programs of study. Teachers are encouraged to select resources that meet the diverse learning needs of students they teach. The resource authorization categories are student basic, student support or teaching:

Student Basic learning resources are those student learning resources authorized by Alberta Education as the most appropriate for addressing the majority of outcomes of the course(s) or substantial components of the course(s); or the most appropriate for meeting general outcomes across two or more grade levels.

Student Support learning resources are those student learning resources authorized by Alberta Education to assist in addressing some of the outcomes of the course(s) or components of the course(s); or to assist in meeting the outcomes across two or more grade levels.

Teaching resources are those teaching resources identified as the best available resources to support the implementation of programs of study and courses; they may be teacher guides to accompany student resources or teacher professional resources. The authorized teaching guides are listed with the student resources.

These resources are organized by grade, authorization status and title in alphabetical order. Series names are italicized. Grade level(s) are indicated beside each title and there is a cross-reference column to other Knowledge and Employability subjects on the right side of the page.

Note:

Alberta Education strongly recommends that teachers read all selections in the student resources and all activities in the teacher guides prior to using them with students. Careful consideration should be given to the sensitivities of both the student audience and the community, and to the reading levels of students.

This resource consists of a book, CD-ROM and instructor's guide. The CD-ROM has four specific games that take into account all aspects of the Agriculture 20-4 and 30-4 strands.

The ten units in this resource address topics within natural resource management, forestry, agriculture and horticulture. It focuses on plant and crop science, and pest control with an emphasis on production and management. Areas such as animal science look at the care and management of small and large animals from genetics, breeding and reproduction. There is an emphasis on chemical safety that reinforces safety in the workplace. Text is accompanied by colourful illustrations. Each chapter features an introduction of student objectives and key terms; it includes a chapter review with questions for discussion and highlights related careers. The resource includes a glossary.

The instructor's manual provides definitions for terms in each unit together with suggested class activities and keys to the self-evaluation sections within the book. A lab manual is also available.

Comments:

- This resource was developed in the United States and teachers will need to supplement the resource with Canadian content.
 - The language level may prove to be challenging for some Knowledge and Employability students.

Forestry and Aboriginal Communities and Green Energy and First Nations are two videos from a documentary series by Vancouver aboriginal filmmaker Brenda Chalmers. The videos celebrate the success and growth of First Nations' entrepreneurial spirit in Canada. This is particularly significant because statistics show that the start up rate for Aboriginal businesses in Canada is more than twice the national average.

Forestry and Aboriginal Communities presents information on partnerships with forest companies to community-owned ventures. The video features a partnership between Alberta-Pacific and the Bigstone Cree First Nation and shows how this became a model for success in Canada's forest industry. In addition the video visits an award-winning forestry operation that has become the pride of Northern Ontario.

Green Energy and First Nations focuses on the production of green energy by First Nations people. Green energy refers to ways of generating power or electricity through natural means, like the wind, water or sun. Aboriginal communities can make money, the resource is free, and it doesn't harm the earth's environment. The video shows how nature is empowering Canada's First Nations.

A comprehensive overview of the oil sands industry in Alberta is provided in Pay Dirt. Teachers will discover background information surrounding the origin of, and the decisions surrounding, oil sands development. The historical insights provide the petroleum industry's perspective, which demonstrates political development and resource development within the global context. This DVD connects to General Outcome and Related Issue 3 in Social Studies 10-1.

Comments:

- This video presents historical information about bituminous sand from the perspective of the petroleum industry and economic globalization.

Read to Live provides information, strategies and activities that teachers can use to engage and support students who are experiencing difficulties with reading. The focus is on helping students think about reading in a new way by connecting classroom experiences with students' lifeworlds. This resource, which is a series of workshops to enhance student literacy at the junior and senior high school levels, is intended for teachers who are new to teaching, new to teaching students with reading difficulties or just looking for extra support. It can also be used by more experienced teachers to mentor colleagues and create a community of practice.

The first workshop, Introduction: Responsive Teaching, describes an approach to teaching reading that focuses on addressing students' unique learning needs. This is followed by three more in-depth workshops, which explore different elements of reading: Contexts of Reading, Active Reading and Multiple Texts/ Multiple Literacies. Each of these workshops contains three sections: Background, Reading Strategies and Teaching Strategies. The workshops can be explored in multiple sittings, in whatever way is most useful. Teachers can explore the information in any order; however, teachers new to teaching reading or to the concepts covered may find it most useful to start with the Background.

Background
The background section summarizes important concepts, research findings and other information on the topic. Links provide further information on relevant theorists and researchers.

Reading Strategies

The reading strategies section offers sample strategies teachers can model, teach and reinforce to help students become more effective readers. These strategies apply and build on the concepts in the background section.

Teaching Strategies

The teaching strategies section provides sample instructional strategies and activities teachers can use to strengthen students' understanding and motivation
